

Senior History research planner

What sort of information do you need and what format do you need it in?

Keywords and synonyms

Search term	Synonym 1	Synonym 2

Where will you need to look for your information? Are there any organisations that specialise in this topic?

Advanced search techniques cheat sheet

Boolean	Google and databases	AND apples and oranges OR apples or oranges NOT apples not oranges
Quotes	Google and databases	"Peter of Alexandria"
Wild card	Google- Databases-	never gonna * you up technology education*
Search within a URL	Google	inurl:edu
Find similar sites	Google	related:http://www.coldwar.org/
Search for particular file types	Google	filetype:pdf

Website evaluation cheat sheet

Look at the website and check for...

Relevance

Authority

Currency

Purpose

Accuracy

URL

Comparison

Bibliographic details

Write the bibliographic details of your sources here so you can easily find them again later. If you're using a book, write the page numbers of the text you're referring to.